TRUSTEES' REPORT.

The Trustees of the Peabody Institute herein submit their forty-third annual report to the citizens of Peabody.

The accompanying reports of the Lyceum and Library Committee, and its various sub-committees, together with the Librarians' reports, show, in detail, the work of the Institute for the past year, and the figures given of the circulation of volumes from the library, and the daily attendance at the reading-room, attest how thoroughly our townspeople appreciate the advantages afforded them by the munificence of the founder of the Institute. The enthusiasm and interest with which the citizens have taken up the matter of a public celebration of the coming one hundredth anniversary of Mr. Peabody's birth, bear witness to the fact that his princely gift to the town, and the lasting benefits conferred by it, are more thoroughly appreciated as time goes by.

Something of a departure from the usual course has been pursued by the Lyceum committee the past season, with what results their report more fully deals.

The large increase in attendance at the reading room, alluded to in the report of the Library Committee, makes it plain that one of the needs of the immediate future will be increased facilities in that direction, which can be provided only by an addition to the present structure. The Board of Trustees in previous years have considered this matter, and various plans for such extension have been suggested. To those who have most carefully considered this question, it seems evident that if an addition be made, it should be on the westerly side of the Institute, extending from the present reading room, and fronting on Main street.

A much needed improvement has been made during the past year by the opening of a passage-way directly from the front hall to the library room, thus obviating the necessity of those desiring to take books from the library using the reading room as a thoroughfare, and thus disturbing those quietly enjoying its privileges.

The income for the past year has been about the same as for the year previous, and no securities have matured during the year. The fact that no securities held by the Trustees are in default of interest shows the conservatism and good judgment of the Finance Committees of previous years.

In conclusion the Trustees desire to speak in terms of praise of the faithful and conscientious services rendered by the Librarian, his assistants, and the Janitor.

ARTHUR F. POOLE,
for the Trustees.

PEABODY, Feb. 6, 1895.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

LYCEUM AND LIBRARY COMMITTEE.

TO THE TRUSTEES OF THE PEABODY INSTITUTE:

So fully are the details of the several departments of the Library given in the accompanying reports of the officers and sub-committees that further comment would be only a repetition, and seems unnecessary.

Respectfully submitted,

J. K. COLE,
Chairman Lyceum and Library Committee.

LIBRARY COMMITTEE.

TO THE LYCEUM AND LIBRARY COMMITTEE:

The Committee on the Peabody Library submit the following report for the year ending Feb. 1, 1895.

The number of books loaned from the Peabody Library has had a notable increase in the past year. It has risen from 33,836 volumes in the year 1893-4 to 37,736 in 1894-5—a growth of nearly 12 per cent. This increase has taken place almost wholly in the department of Fiction and Juveniles, which covered 79 per cent. of the total circulation, against 75.17 per cent for the year before.

A slight increase is also noted in the circulation of books relating to Natural and Applied Science. For all other departments of the Library there has been a decrease in the number of borrowers.

The number of volumes added to the Library has been 740. Of these 615 were purchased by the Committee, 74 were bound volumes of magazines and 51 were gifts from various sources.

The number of volumes worn out and discarded has been 71. Deducting these, and giving the Library credit for the additions, we have a net total of 32,169 volumes upon the shelves on Feb. 1, 1895, exclusive of the Patent Office Reports.

In the Reading Room connected with the Peabody Library the attendance shows a large increase over the year 1893-4.

A record has been kept of the number of visitors to the room during the same hours as last year; from 7 to 9 p. m. on week days and for the whole time the room is open on Sundays. The whole number recorded for the full year from Feb. 1, 1894 to Feb. 1, 1895 has been for week days, 6,244; for Sundays, 878; making a total of 7,122. It is perfectly safe to estimate the attendance on week days between the hours of 2 and 7 p. m., as at least equal to that between the hours of 7 and 9 P. M. If, then, we double the record for these hours and add the number of Sunday visitors, we have a total of no less than 13,366 persons who have made use of the reading room in the year closing Feb. 1, 1895.

The record during the first year of the opening of the room, covered only the nine months from May 1, 1893, to Feb. 1, 1894, and comparisons can only be made for these months. The table below shows the increase for this period.

	WEEK DAYS, FROM 7 TO 9 P. M.		SUNDAYS.	TOTAL.
May 1, '94 to Feb. 1, '95.	4629		567	5196
May 1, '93 to Feb. 1, '94.	3157		416	3573
Increase for 9 months	1,472		151	1623

For 9 months, the average attendance on Sundays has grown from 11 in 1893 to 15 in 1894. For the whole year it has been 17.

It is gratifying to learn that the pupils from the schools, both old and young, have made use of the Reading Room more constantly and freely than ever before.

One of the busiest portions of the day is after school hours from 4 to 6 p. m. At this time, and often during the evening, especially on Saturdays, every seat is occupied by a quiet and interested seeker after knowledge, and the accommodation the room affords is tested to its full capacity.

We are sorry to have to report that in the past year three instances of apparently intentional mutilation of illustrated papers and magazines have been brought to the notice of the committee. One small volume has also been stolen from the reference books in the Reading Room. The object of the perpetrators of this mischief seems to have been to possess themselves of certain pictures which caught their fancy. Large notices have been printed and posted in the room calling the attention of visitors to the statute of the State provided for such misdemeanors and the penalty therefor. It is hoped that this will be sufficient to prevent their repetition in the future.

Some slight changes have been made in the list of periodicals. The "Outlook," "Putnam's Historical Magazine" and "Music" have been subscribed for. The "Musical Record" and the "Land of Sunshine" are received as gifts from the publishers, while the "Magazine of American History" has ceased to issue. With these alterations the list now embraces, including the Patent Office Gazette, 61 serial publications.

The great variety of mental food here offered, covering the widest range of human thought and labor, makes the Reading Room attractive to every class in the community and it is here perhaps that the good influence of the Institute is most directly and immediately felt.

The steadily growing patronage it has secured since its opening reminds us again that more room will have to be provided in the not distant future.

For the Committee,

J. H. OSGOOD, Chairman.

LYCEUM COMMITTEE.

TO THE LYCEUM AND LIBRARY COMMITTEE.

It seemed to this year's committee that the primary object for which the Lyceum was endowed was educational, and for this reason the committee expended a part of their appropriation in a course of popular scientific lectures. While the interest in these lectures has not been as great as the committee had hoped, the attendance has averaged about half that of a similar course recently given in the Lowell Institute, Boston. The lectures, which were illustrated by experiments, have been both instructive and interesting.

In regard to the other lectures, the committee has followed in the path of last year in having only lecturers of the higher grade.

The time of the lectures has been changed from 7.30 to 7.45.

Following is a list of lecturers, subjects and dates.

Nov. 15. Madame Hanna A. Korany. Subject, "The East: Its Past, Present and Future."

Nov. 22. Mr. Will Carlton. Subject, "The Drama of Human Nature."

Dec. 6. Mr. John Temple Graves. Subject, "The Reign of the Demagogue."

Dec. 13. Mr. Louis C. Elson. Subject, "Seven Centuries of English Song."

Jan. 3, 10, 17, 24, 31, Feb. 7. A course of six lectures on the "Acoustic Principles Underlying the Art of Telephony," with experimental illustrations, by Mr. Harry E. Clifford, of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

For the Committee,
WARREN D. KING, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE EBEN DALE SUTTON REFERENCE LIBRARY.

TO THE LYCEUM AND LIBRARY COMMITTEE:

The report of the Librarian shows that there have been added to the Library 48 bound volumes and 202 serials. Also that the number of consultations has been 604, more than for any year since 1872. There has been a steady increase since 1891.

It is twenty five years the 13th of last April since the first Committee was appointed for the Sutton Library. The Library was opened to the public on the 14th of June 1869. Up to the present time there have been put upon the shelves 3038 bound volumes of works of reference of the highest order, relating to the Arts and Sciences. Only the larger cities of the country can show such a collection of books open to the use of all who may wish to consult them.

For the Committee,
G. F. OSGOOD, Chairman.
